MILO HAD SERIOUS AND LONG TROUBLE

Mr. Bert Milo of Box 92 Windsor, Conn., Says Cl-NOT Relieved Him of Serious Sickness and Made Him Well, Happy and Thankful.

MR. BERT MILO

It just seems that the people Hartford and vicinity are bubbling over with enthusiasm, said Mr. Norman Ryan the famous CINOT Expert the Alderman Drug Co., Hartford., Mr. Ryan is an interesting young man and has had wide and varied experi-ences and is always glad to talk to any one concerning Hygiene and other matters pertaining to health and happiness. Mr. Milo says:

'I have been troubled with stomac trouble for many years, would have gas, bloat, heartburn and terrible sick-headaches, had no appetite and was nervous and did not sleep well. I heard of CINOT and decided to use it and not only myself but my family have received the most wonderful re-sults and I heartly endorse it."

CINOT is being demonstrated in CINOT is being demonstrated in Norwich by nn expert at the H. M. Lerou Drug Store, 208 Main St. It is also for saic in Dayville by W. E. STRAND TODAY.

The Strand offers a large double feature bill of pictures for Thursday, Priday and Saturday, two of the largest features available in the market.

Conway Tearle, lidol of millions of theatregoers, now has some into his inheritance in stardom, and his first picture, Marconed Hearts, produced by Lewis J. Selanick for National Pictures, is to be shown at the Strand theatre three days beginning today.

Mr. Tearle for many seasons has been seen in support of the leading femining stars of the silver sheet. His first picture Marconed Hearts, is a play that provides him an ideal part for his talents—a picture play that calls for a virile fighting man working out his destiny under difficulties and winning a beautiful woman.

The story is of a man, a woman and a human brute who are thrown together on tropical island by the fortunes of the sea. And the woman is the one of her sex that the man cerdially hates. two men there develops one of the most dramatic situations ever recorded on the screen Zena Keefe, 1929 Seinnick star, plays opposite Mr. Toarie, and shares with him the honor of making one of the most thrilling romances of the season. Mountain Madness, a nevel story of the Virginia mountains, a Republic picture is the next attraction lieted at the Strand theatre for three days, beginning tacky.

According to an old tradition associated with the Granodoc Crag, if two lovers quarrel as the mist rolls up the lovers quarrel as the mist rolls up the glen 'mountain madness" will come upon them and reconciliation will be improbable. The strange experiences that befall Jack and Enid before they overcome their attack of "mountain madness" are both unexpected and dramatic, and the spectator is kept in suspense as to the final outcome until the very last scene, when again "the mist rolls up the Sien" and the lovers are reunigd. A comedy and up-to-date weekly will chee this extraordinary show at the Strand.

Tears vie with smiles in the story of Homespun Folks, Thomas H. Ince's tremendous triumph for the associated Producers. Inc., which will be shown at the Breed theatre today and Saturday. Perhaps in no American-made photopiay of recent years has there been such a wast wealth of appeal combining human interest, comedy and melodrama. The new ince picture contains heart throba, romance and pathos, in addition to mumerous comedy touches. It tells of a country lawyer's fight against crooked position and as a modern picture of small town life hold the mirror truthfully to the real thing. These are the high lights of Homespun Polits—its realness, its truth and its simple hencety. The characters are real, the plot is a story of human people and the direction is check full of master touches. Lloyd Hughes, as the young district attorney with a conscience, makes a definite step upward in his screen career. Buster Keaton will also be seen in the second of his million dollar comedies.
